England Speaks in Complimentary Terms of America's Commander.

HIS ACHIEVEMENT EXCITES THEIR HIGHEST ADMIRATION

Combination of Intrepidity and Strategy But Rarely Seen.

SEAMANSHIP AND FIGHTING ABILITY OF A HIGH ORDER

All Essentials of the Situation Fully Grasped and Every Contingency Provided For with Consummate Forethought—Even the Anti-American Press of London Pauses in Its Cautious Criticism to Admit that the Squadron Was Handled with Great Skill.

LONDON, May 3.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Dewey's splendid achievement is still the absorbing topic of admiring comment here. The combination of intrepidity and strategy displayed by the American commander is more thoroughly appreciated as the risks and difficulties of the feat to be accomplished are realized.

The entrance to Manila harbor is by no means easy to negotiate in the best of times, for it abounds in shoals and cross currents, in addition to mine fields laid down within the last three months. To have threaded such a maze in the dead darkness of a tropical night with a squadron of large ships was of itself a memorable example of navigating ability.

Further particulars from Manila are awaited with an impatience here that can scarcely be exceeded in New York. The political aspect of the American capture of the Philippines is occupying a large share of attention and a report is current tonight that the Kaiser has ordered Prince Henry, with a German squadron, to Philippine waters.

A strong conviction prevails that by Dewey's coup the Washington government has been placed in possession of means which, properly utilized, can ensure a quick triumph in its Cuban policy.

The situation at Madrid, believed to be quite desperate and a revolution is considered inevitable. I heard from members of the government tonight that no dispatch had been received today from the British ambassador at Madrid, though urgent inquiries had been addressed him.

Calling at the Spanish embassy tonight, I found there the same condition of black ignorance of events at Madrid. Marquis Gutrio, first secretary, said: "We have had no news from Madrid since Monday night and only know what is happening from the newspapers."

SPANISH OPINIONS ON MANILA.

Think the City Can Easily Hold Its Own.

MADRID, May 2. (via the Frontier)—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—It is impossible to imagine the sensation still prevailing owing to the Manila reverse. The people are completely led to believe that the American navy is in no condition to do anything serious. Surprise is general, as well as anger and consternation. It is known that very heavy guns and torpedoes were sent to Manila last year when the conservatives were in power and all the money necessary to complete the land and submarine defenses. Most Spaniards find fault with the marine minister that nothing was sent to Manila and Cuba earlier, when the growing tension in America indicated clearly that a storm was breaking.

Most Spanish generals who have been governors general in the Philippines or held high command in Manila believe the military resources of the colony quite sufficient to repel a landing unless in stronger force than the American fleet can furnish.

The chief cause of the government is to watch over the Carlists and republicans if the army of police gendarmery is not loyal and energetically commanded. The ministers and authorities, however, are on the alert and on the slightest provocation will proclaim a state of siege and take other drastic measures. Carlist, republican and socialist papers will be seized and prosecuted.

by order of the home secretary. There was today a fresh outbreak and wild excitement tonight when it became known that Commodore Dewey had threatened to bombard Manila in four hours if the town and all Spanish vessels were not surrendered.

BROTHER-IN-LAW OF GEN. WEYLER.

One of the Officers Captured on the Argonauts.

KEY WEST, May 3.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Captain Devinity of Miami, Fla., thinks that Colonel Vicente de Cortijo, who was among the prisoners of war captured on the Argonauts off Cienfuegos, is the brother-in-law of General Weyler. He says Weyler married Cortijo's sister. Colonel Cortijo denied, on board the Nashville, that he was a relative of Weyler. He said he had been forty-two years in the army and was about to retire. He has been on Blanco's staff. He is colonel of the Third cavalry regiment of Puerto Principe. Devinity saw Cortijo on the Nashville this morning from the harbor launch Florida and went on board to get a better look. He is positive he is Weyler's brother-in-law. Cortijo, he said, had been pointed out to him in Havana and he saw him afterwards.

Great Justice at Kingston.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, May 3.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The cruisers Pearl and Alert sailed for Santiago Saturday. Two thousand more troops are coming here. There is great activity, so as to complete the fortifications and extend the garrison accommodations. All of this is supposed to indicate that England is preparing to counteract any possible intervention by France and Austria against the United States.

Spanish War Ship at Gibraltar.

LONDON, May 3.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The Daily Mail Tangier correspondent reports a large American schooner behind Gibraltar and a Spanish battleship, supposed to be the Peiza, is lying between Ceuta and Casero point.

SAMPSON'S SHIPS HEAR THE NEWS.

Dewey's Victory Causes Smiles and Shouts of Joy.

ON BOARD THE DISPATCH BOAT TRITON, Five Miles Northeast of Morro Castle (via Key West), May 3.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The British cruiser Talbot, from Bermuda, arrived at this point at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and sent a boat alongside the Montgomery, acting flagship, with a message that it intended visiting Havana unless the blockading squadron considered that its interests would be adversely affected by the visit.

The commander of the Talbot declared that he did not expect to remain long at the Cuban capital. He meant to send a launch to see the British consul and advise with him, and after that he would steam to Key West. It is supposed that he will bring with him any British subjects who wish to get out of Havana. The Talbot did not salute the Montgomery with its guns, both commanders being of the same rank.

At the first sight of the trim cruiser, strange to the eyes of the squadron, it was suspected that it might be a Spanish vessel and the American war ships were quite ready to receive it, and as it steamed along the coast past the Wilmington and the Cincinnati, even the lighthouse tender Mangrove stood by ready to help the Montgomery in the fray.

The dispatch boat Three Friends brought down to the feet the first news of Commodore Dewey's victory in the Pacific and the Triton went alongside the Montgomery and left a copy of the bulletin with Commander Converse.

"That's the best news yet," he said enthusiastically, "and I have no doubt it's true, every word of it. It sounds exactly like Dewey. The boys of the fleet will be jealous that he has this chance, but they won't grudge him his laurels."

When the dispatch reached the ward room many of the officers, who had turned in, dressed and came up and discussed Dewey's triumph. They looked up the naval register and counted the number of guns and the tonnage that Spain had lost.

When the sailors heard the news they jumped about with glee and shook hands with each other. The Mangrove sent a boat to the Triton with mail for the shore and a copy of Dewey's telegram was sent aboard her.

There is no longer any doubt that the internal situation is causing the government almost as much uneasiness as the external. Last night's demonstration was one of the most serious in some time, since those openly participating showed their revolutionary tendencies.

There is a general belief that a total cabinet crisis is imminent, and it will probably end in a considerable modification of the present government, possibly in the formation of a national ministry under the presidency of Marshal Martinez Campos.

EXCITING TIMES IN THE CORTES.

Liberal Government Comes in for Some Severe Criticisms.

MADRID, May 4.—The floors and galleries of Congress (lower house) were crowded at today's sitting, and some lively scenes ensued.

Senor Salmeron said that before questioning the government, the house ought to pay its tribute of admiration to Spanish sailors at Cavite, adding: "When it has been ascertained how much blood has been shed, and how much money expended, it will be necessary to establish the responsibility attaching to the crown, as well as to the least citizen."

Murmurs of protest followed this remark. The president of the chamber called Senor Salmeron to order and directed his attention to the article of the constitution declaring the inviolability of the crown.

Senor Salmeron continued, demanding information as to the defenses in Manila bay and insisting that this was the question that should be discussed after the government had given its explanations.

Senor Salmeron renewed his demands for an explanation of the cause of the reverse the fleet sustained.

Just at this moment Weyler entered the chamber and seated himself between the republican and Carlist groups.

Salmeron continued, deploring the unpatriotic attitude of the conservatives, and attributed the country's ills to "the worst era in which we live."

He concluded: "We expend millions to maintain the monarchy, but have not enough to buy ironclads. Who ever will destroy the existing regime will be a great patriot."

This declaration was received with loud conservative protests.

Senor Sagasta made a determined reply, which was loudly applauded by a large majority of the chamber.

DON CARLOS AND HIS FOLLOWERS LAYING DEEP PLOTS

Pretender is All Ready to Ascend the Throne When the Proper Moment Arrives and His Supporters Aver that the End of the Regency is in Sight—Sagasta May Yet Stake Everything on a Bold Dash in the Hope of Vanquishing the American Fleet.

MADRID, May 3.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—People now want to know how Europe views American success and whether the great powers, especially Russia, France and Germany, would not step in and stop the United States and get an honorable peace for Spain.

HONG KONG, May 3.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The Manila cable was cut last night at 7. Dewey told Consul Wildman if the cable was interrupted it would indicate the last act of the Spaniards before capitulation.

BRUSSELS, May 3.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Don Carlos, seen by me today at Hotel Bellevue, said: "I feel the Spanish defeat keenly, but proud Spain has maintained her glorious traditions unscathed and maintained the combat against a superior force with courage and determination."

I found great activity prevailing among the pretender's suite, and arrangements are undoubtedly being made for a hurried departure.

It is the beginning of the end of the regency. Christina may make further effort on behalf of her son, but her power has crumbled to pieces, her principal supporters are wavering in their allegiance and the irresistible march of events is bringing rapidly nearer the resumption of the Spanish government by the rightful dynasty.

Dispatches from Madrid say the Spanish authorities intend to throw the whole naval strength of Spain into one united and supreme effort against the United States.

A Cadiz dispatch says the second Spanish squadron has nearly completed its preparations for active service.

The second Spanish squadron consists of the war ships Pelayo, Alfonso XII and Vittoria and a number of smaller ships. It is reported that great difficulty is experienced in fitting out the ships, owing to lack of money.

This special dispatch adds that it is even stated at Madrid by those who are responsible for the naval movements that it has been determined to avoid isolated combats on unequal terms and with a superior enemy.

Senor Salmeron has given notice that he will interpellate the government on the events in the Philippine Islands and Premier Sagasta will reply, voicing the intention of the queen's government to pursue the war to the bitter end.

It is rumored that Senor Gasset will propose that the present minister of marine, Admiral Bermejo, and his predecessor, Admiral Bernager, be forced to assume responsibility for the Philippine disaster.

The Spanish officials say that when Commodore Dewey demanded the surrender of the Spanish guns, torpedoes, etc., Governor General Augusti replied: "Come and face them."

At present the emperor regards it impossible. I hear the emperor has definitely informed the queen regent that she cannot hope to procure efficacious intervention until Spain is prepared to treat on the basis of the abandonment of Cuba.

GENERAL WEYLER PENS A LETTER.

Says the Spanish Army and Navy Are Superior to the Yankees.

MADRID, May 3.—An article written by General Weyler has appeared in a newspaper at Palma, capital of the island of Mallorca, where the general was born and where his home is situated.

Continuing, General Weyler asserts that the "Spanish army and navy are superior in discipline to the Yankees, whose lack of discipline was manifested in the loss of the Maine."

General Weyler then accused the Spanish government of weakness, and concludes with making pessimistic predictions regarding the future.

Turkey Will Be Neutral. CONSTANTINOPLE, May 3.—Turkey has notified United States Minister Angell that it will maintain neutrality.
